Make Cellar Steps That Cannot Break

Build steps and hatchway of concrete and you will never have trouble with a shaky, leaky entrance to your cellar. Concrete, always dry and clean, becomes stronger with age and is safe under the heaviest strains.

ALPHA THE GUARANTEED CEMENT

is the kind to use in making your cellar steps and other jobs of concrete. We have sold lots of it here, and those who buy it come back for more.

ALPHA is always the same. It is stronger, finer, and goes further than ordinary Portland Cements. The United States Government uses it for many forts, piers and sea-walls where strength and permanence are essential. We guarantee ALPHA to more than meet the Government standard for strength. Try it.

Death of Mrs. Jemima Green—Personal and Local News.

(Alice P. Massey, Correspondent.)

Mrs. Jemima Green passed away Monday, March 15, 1915, at her home after several weeks of sickness. Jemima Gilfillan was born in Ryegate, July 15, 1829. She married Jacob Varnum, March 28, 1850. Three children were born to them. Harvey of Jeffersonville, Henry, who died at the age of three years, and Byron, who lives on the old home place here. One of her chief characteristics was an ever-present and active sympathy for the suffering and needy manifested in kindly and self-sacrificing deeds. She will be missed by a large circle of friends both old and young, being a companion for both. Mr. Varnum died Jan. 5, 1884. She was a resident of this town for the past 64 years. In 1887 she married Fred Green, deceased several years ago. She is survived by her two sons, two grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren, also one brother, James Gilfillan, 91 years of age, at East Barnet, Mrs. Thayer of Passumpsic and Mrs. Hoyt of St. Albans. The funeral was held at the house Wednesday at 1 o'clock, the Rev. S. Aldrich officiating, interment at Danville. Her brother, James, 91 years, attended the funeral.

Billy Miller of Lincoln, who has been visiting in the place the past week, has returned to his home.

Pastor Demanch was pleasantly surprised on the evening of March 17, it being his 43rd birthday when 43 of his friends came in to help him celebrate the occasion. The evening was spent with music and games. Refreshments were served of cake, doughnuts and coffee. He was also given a post card shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sanborn were at the home of her brother, Louis Gadapee, Sunday.

It was not the fault of the correspondent that the items were not in last week. They were sent.

Anna Stanton was sick the past week and unable to attend school.

Edith and Wallace Clifford are struggling with the chicken pox. Dr. Ross is the attending physician.

Mrs. Miller, who has spent the winter at the Fabyans with her daughter, Mrs. Peter Eddy has returned home and opened her house.

The Mountain school closed Wednesday, March 17. Those having no absent marks are Maurice and Susan Fellows. Bertha and Frank Fellows and Augustus Paquin were absent one-half day only.

The social given by the ladies of the D. of L. at George Drew's Friday night, was well attended and a fine time enjoyed by all. The supper was fine for which that organization is famous.
